Larkin, apparently caused by falling to provide adequate protection. He estimated the job would run at least $15,000.

Edward attorney Sam L. Pava, Jr., was asked to check ownership of the old Kings Daughters Hospital building on Carroll Avenue to Hancock General Hospital. A motion was adopted declaring it of no further use and asking the board of supervisors to call it, designating proceeds to the hospital's general fund. This came to when repairs were sought by the St. Vincent's Hospital, which currently operates a school there.

Trustees authorized the administrator and Dr. Frank Schmidt, radiologist, to work out and report back on a billing system for his radiology work. Schmidt requested the hospital to handle this as a complication developing from medicare for him.

Approval of Hancock General for medicare was reported by the administrator. It was effective July 8 which picked up most of the over 65 age admissions for July. The hospital is to get a $32.59 per diem cost reimbursement under the program. So far, he said, doctors have been able to hold down a median case load.

Patent statistics showed the charity patient average had nearly doubled this July—4.4 over 2.2 a year ago. Average order to present a redistricting plan under the one person-one vote doctrine on the U.S. Supreme Court by Oct. 24.

be issued until corrective measures are taken.

Trustee Eric Larson was told to survey the situation, ascertain what corrective measures would be necessary and report back at their next session on Friday evening.

Trustees approved a request from Chester H. Blalock, superintendent, Hancock North Central School, to modify the school's telephone system. Two lines are to be installed to cope with school needs and a pay telephone for students. Installation is $117.50 with a monthly billing rate of $70.60, he said.

Blalock reported on bids for an air compressor for the new bus barn. Hart Supply Co. of Gulfport was low at $704.

Polly

As legal liquor at long last began to flow in select designated areas of Hancock County, everyone promptly appeared in come back to life. Bea George dispensed her first drink Friday morning, and the Veebe Club was the scene of much revelry as the initial court was passed promptly at 4 p.m. the same day and the party continued long into the wee, small hours. Jack Roy pitched his big first drink one of the happy celebration on Saturday. Two "Gardens", Al Smith of Albany, Ohio and Ed Ryan of Lincoln, Nebraska were meeting the end of the drouth when your demon photographer arrived on the scene. Cathy, the pretty brown-eyed barmoid said it had been so long since she had mixed a drink, she was afraid she'd forgotten the ingredients.

Deadlines for Polly

Before getting on to news of the week, we want to notify all of our contributors that due to increased advertising, which in turn increases the size of the Echo, we're forced to begin and end the column earlier. News must be in my Monday noon at the very latest for any issue as the first four pages must be made up on Monday, and guess what always goes in that section? P. Peers, of course. . . so we will now be writing most copy on Saturday, we'd very much appreciate any calls or notes received on that day.

Weekend's big todo

The Dec Ellens had a built-in party when their seven children, husbands or wives 34 grandchildren and four great-grandchildren arrived to help them celebrate their Golden Wedding anniversary last Sunday. The whole crew, totaling 60, extended Mass at Our Lady of the Gulf where the couple received their vows, dined on mimosas then moved on to the Parish Hall where hosts of friends dropped in for refreshments and to offer hearty congratulations.

Ruby (Mrs. J.D.) Green was presented jewelry by her husband and a huge cake by her four grandchildren, when daughter, Myrtle Olson and Betty Harville, surprised her with a party on her birthday, Sunday, Aug. 7. Also present were con-in-law, Bill and Ellie, grandsons, Johnny and Jim Harville, and granddaughters, Linda Perdue and Kimberly Olson.

Time for seafood tickets

It's not too late to buy your ticket for the seafood dinner to be served from 5 p.m. 'til Friday, at Waveland Town Hall. The affair is sponsored by the Men's Club of Waveland Methodist Church and funds will help pay for the new building, now well under way. Stuffed crab, potato salad, peas, coffee or tea, bread and dessert will be served for the small donation of $1.

Elaine Kelley returned home raving about her three week trip to New York and Canada. . . and gifted us with a lovely embroidered decorative plate picturing Niagara Falls from the Canadian side of the border. She even braved the terrifying baby black ride up the ladders of the Needle to perches of the view from the revolving glass restaurant, high, high up in the air.

Rosie Bourgeois has also just returned from an almost two month vacation in Chazyana, Wyo., where she visited her sister, Rosalie Dumas and family. Rosie said she really had her call of time dancing. . . until she was out the door on her chest.

Get well soon

Get well with time. . . although Kira (Mrs. Roy) Sanson unfortunately accepted Carlos Injury when her car was rammed by another in New Orleans last Wednesday, she's still a mass of color and brioche as a result of the accident.

Glady (Mrs. Peter) Manasco is at home again after spending a week in Gulfport Memorial Hospital.

Bazzy (Mrs. Edward P.) Phillips is another who has been under the weather. . . she's been suffering terribly with arthritis.

The clerk must have a certain amount of personality for Mary Lee and Geo Perry. . . he's due to arrive at their desks for the second time come February.

Pat and Lela Folbeck, and one and daughter, got a warm welcome to Waveland. . . Lela, a retired Colonel, now with the couple, has been here for several months, living in Jack and Lela's home. The Folbecks moved into the brick on corner of Greenwood and Central last Thursday and immediately began beautifying their new yard.

Ann, A.J. Pitts of Waveland had to learn her sister's garden, Royal L. Anthony J. Pitts, was so worried with the need a new replacement.

Our Ellis

Ellis Cuevas, Echo advertising manager, is in line for a get well wish, having had surgery Friday at Gulfport Memorial.

Kild and Eddie Carriere and family were among the many spending the weekend at their summer homes.

Bea George has made arrangements for a television debut for herself and fellow "Property" performers to appear on WDSU's Newstime at the earliest available date. . . May 1967. . . oh well, at least everyone will have time to design a Haddath type hat for the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lannoco of Westwego were among the many spending the weekend on the coast.

Newcomers

Ethel (Mrs. Clarence A.) Evans reports on recent and upcoming activities of the obviously very active Bay-Waveland Newcomers Club of which she is president. Their June meeting was a beach party for "Mom and the kids", in July.

Bell pays tribute to 45-year man

E.C. Strong of Bay St. Louis, a 45-year veteran of the telephone industry, was presented a diamond pin in recognition of his service with Southern Bell at a banquet in his honor on Aug. 5 at the Roman Inn.

General plant manager J.C. Underwood made the presentation while J.C. Dabney, president, Gulf Coast Council of Pioneers, gave Strong a life membership certificate to the Telephone Pioneers of America.

Immediately prior to his retirement, Strong was plant foreman in Bay St. Louis, a position he had held since 1960. He began his telephone career in Miami, Fla., and was transferred to his home state in 1927.

Born and reared in Bay St. Louis, he is a graduate of St. Stanislaus High School and resides with his wife, the former Ruby Celma Middleton of Panama, Fla., at 113 Washington St. The couple have two sons, E.C., Jr., of Talladega, Ala., and Richard, Birmingham, Ala., and one daughter, Mrs. Sam Sanders of Jackson.

What does a coffee cup have to do with your house sewer?

Build your house sewer with the same pipe used for your new municipal sewers... Dickey Perma-Line Clay Pipe and the Dickey Coupling

Seems a little far-fetched? It's not. The pipe you select for your new house sewer must have the same basic qualities that make a coffee cup last for generations. Vinegar, bleach, scouring powder, cleaning chemicals, grease, paint and other harsh liquids poured into a coffee cup will not corrode the cup. Chemical reaction between the cup and the liquid is impossible... the cup is made of a chemically dead substance.

Continued grinding with a metal scraper to remove hard particles from a cup will wear out the scraper, but hardness protects it from scratching or wear.

Boiling water and harsh soaps will rust away a metal dish pan. One scrubbing of a fiber place mat in this same boiling water will cause the fiber mat to sag and fall apart. Endless cleaning in scalding water cannot rust or soften a coffee cup.

Dickey Perma-Line Clay Pipe... and only Dickey

Pipe... is like this coffee cup. Chemically inert, rock-hard, strong, immune to acids and alkalis, no matter how much abuse you heap on it, Dickey Perma-Line Clay Pipe won't rust, rot, corrode, scratch, disintegrate, soften or in any way fail you. Like your coffee cup, Dickey Perma-Line Pipe will serve you, your children and their children after them with equal efficiency.

This remarkable pipe is made especially for house sewers. It comes in longer lengths for faster installation... this keeps your initial cost low. And the Dickey Coupling assures you a completely tight line... water cannot leak out and sewer-clogging roots cannot get in.

Remember: A house sewer built with a substitute pipe material is a substitute for a house sewer. Insist on Dickey Perma-Line Coupling Pipe... it's the only way to be sure your house sewer will give you low-cost, trouble-free service for many generations.

These Dickey dealers will be glad to serve you:

Bazaar tidings

Pat Thompson and Mary Willett are busily going after handicraft work for the annual Christ Episcopal Christmas bazaar. They have written letters to all men of the church asking that any so inclined, fashion articles such as pipe racks, spice racks, checker boards, bird houses, wall plaques, crab nets, mail boxes, in fact just about anything that may be sold at the affair. They add for benefit of who don't know one end of a hammer from the other, that they'll also welcome weaving, crocheting, (now, come on... it's a popular pastime among Special Forces Green Beret fighters) or just about anything good you'd like to cook.

So successful is a social activities club for unattached New Orleans ladies between 40 and 60 years of age, that its organizer and former president, Mrs. Hilda Silverberg, is offering to help form such a group in this area if enough are interested. It sounds like a really nice way for widows or bachelor girls to get together and have fun. Hilda's address is 741 Oakdown Drive, Metairie, La. When she first ran a classified ad in the Times-Picayune, she received 84 replies from lonely and/or bored women. Let's see if we can do at least half as well right here in Hancock County.

Hope you're feeling better Myrtle (Mrs. Red) Burge. Myrtle is now at her de Montluzin Street home after having surgery and extensive treatment at Ochsner in New Orleans.

With 10 rattles

Margie (Mrs. Sidney) Wood has lost any enthusiasm she might have had for visiting her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Bonvillian at their Ferriday, La. home. This is due to the fact that they killed a rattle snake complete with ten rattles in the front yard!

Animal notes

We are happy to report that all seven of Princess' German shepherd puppies are thriving. Louise and Joe Wymer are the proud "grandparents". Little Miss Kelly Ladner has asked that we help her find a small, female dog which has been missing for about a month. No fancy breed, just a little brown mutt, but Kelly is still grieving over her loss. So if anyone has found such an animal, please call her at 467-6996.

Gripe corner

Once again it's the light at US 90 and Main. Obviously pleas for an arrow aren't going to bring results, so we now beg drivers to please wait until the light changes and use the streets. The way cars come careening across the filling station lot and dart out into traffic disregarding the light completely, it's a wonder there haven't been more serious accidents at this intersection.

Big hurry

For the absolute height of ridiculousness we have a small item which should at least afford a few chuckles for long suffering street eater victims. On Friday Google Consolidated was at last issued a ticket by City police. This for digging a hole and forgetting to put up street closed signs. Too little, too late, but isn't just about everything???

Fishing

The water was rough early last week, but some nice trout were caught in the calmer periods off both the car and railroad bridges.

SIGHTS AND SOUNDS A-LONG THE WAY

"Dead" mufliers, talpines, hub caps and similar automotive parts, lying limply in streets all over town; stately crimson crepe myrtle blooming profusely; green, green grass still springing up, thanks to frequent precipitation, and the sound of the surf, slopping briskly at the seawall.

Diesel, kerosine fuel user tax changes told

Persons expecting to purchase tax-exempt fuels after Sept. 1, should write the Motor Vehicle Comptroller for a qualifying form, according to Walter D. Day, executive director, Mississippi Petroleum Commission.

Under House Bill 60, recently enacted by the state legislature, all diesel fuel and kerosine is presumed to be, and is taxed as, highway-use fuel at the rate of 10 cents per gallon.

The changes in the state's method of taxation are significant and of immediate concern to tax-exempt users.

Gridiron training heralds new season

Thump, bang, crash, ouch! No, that's not sound effects of a car wreck; it's the sounds emanating from high school football fields where active pre-season practice started Monday. The lads have been engaging in light training since last Monday and have two more weeks after this to complete this season.

At Bay High, coaches Lance Lumpkin and Luke Caruso are angling the blues. Although runners-up last year in the Gulf Coast Athletic Conference, Lumpkin and Caruso figure they'll be lucky to make fifth this season. Most of last year's stalwarts have graduated and it will be up to the younger and less experienced lads to carry on.

Bowlers register protest

All games played last Thursday night in the summer Miss First Bowling League are under protest, following a heated dispute over eligibility of two substitute players.

The matter will be settled at a meeting at 6:15 p.m. tonight in Tower Lanes, of the officers, Mmes. August Vassalli, president; Alvin Genin, vice president; John C. Glover, Jr., secretary; Herman Mazurk, treasurer; Irving Nacalse, sergeant at arms; and all league team captains.

Top teams this year in the conference look like Ocean Springs, defending champions; Harrison Central, Stone, and probably St. Martin, all of whom will field virtually the same teams they had last season. Lumpkin said he is figuring on Fred Ireland and Don Espinoza for the quarterback spot with Perry Stephens, David Nacalse, Jimmie Lofacano and Larry Gagnon in the other backfield positions. All are returning lettermen.

Back in the line are Marshall Wilcox, only returning end, Alex Romanoff, Don Favre, Don Freeman, Dick Ladner, Bruce Daggett, and Ed Osborne. Others who saw some action last year are scheduled to report this week.

At Hancock North Central, head mentor Ezell Lee is really singing the blues. With only 11 men out for the team after a week's practice he has little choice. He lost fourteen men through graduation and three are not planning to return which is causing him to start from scratch although he does have four lettermen.

Most of the load will be carried by Eddie Ruzicka, strong, 180-pound returning fullback; Glen Davis, 170-pound

7-Up pop high tote in tourney

Sparked by red-hot Randy Ferguson, who pitched the league's first no-hitter of the season, 7-Up won three games Sunday to win the Our Lady of the Gulf CYO Tournament at City Ball Park.

The 7-Uppers beat host YO 7-0 in eight innings in the finals after being tied 5-5 at the end of regulation seven innings.

Bay Rebels started the day with a 17-2 victory over Pass Christian CYO. Next Our Lady of the Gulf beat Ocean Springs CYO, 5-2, then Ferguson pitched his perfect game as OLG beat Protestant Youth League, 10-0. OLG beat Holy Name, 9-2, and 7-Up, beat Bay Rebels, 6-1, in the semi-finals.

Chairman of the event was Jimmie Rutherford who said dates of sectional and state tournaments will be announced next week.
